13

Personal Data

1. In 2014 a Facebook quiz invited users to find out their personality type
2. The app collected the data of those taking the quiz, but also recorded the public data of their friends
3. About 305,000 people installed the app, but it gathered information on up to 87 million people, according to Facebook
4. It is claimed at least some of the data was sold to Cambridge Analytica (CA) which used it to psychologically profile voters in the US

Why GDPR?

www.21Academy.education

What is the GDPR?

The intention of GDPR is to provide a common set of rules across the EU that can meet the changing data projection landscape of today's world and give the adequate protection to individuals - known as 'data subjects'.

It repealed Directive 95/46/EC

Do we need to bother with this law ?

Yes.

There are hefty penalties - up to €20 million or 4% of turnover

Various criminal offences for anyone who knowingly or recklessly acquires, discloses or retains personal data without the consent of the data controller (the employer).

23

How will it affect organizations ?

The law has an impact on al the areas of business not just Payroll.

Needless to say data of employees is affected.

Employers process a lot of personal data about employees for different reasons.

Principles

1	lawful, fair and transparent
2	specific, explicit and legitimate purpose
3	adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary
4	accurate & up to date
5	storage limitation
6	integrity and confidentiality

Accountable

43

How to comply

Employers now also have a duty to show compliance with these principles.

Best way to show compliance is to have;

- detailed DP policy (Privacy Standard);
- detailed information to employees;
- good internal processes; and
- data processing agreement/s

Legal Grounds
Processing is lawful if based on one of the following legal basis
Consent
Legitimate interest
Contractual necessity
Lawfulness of processing
Public interest
Legal obligation
Vital interests
www.21Academy.education

46

The problem with Consent

Imbalance of power between employer and employee.

You cannot just insert a clause in the contract of employment - an employee would have not much option but to accept.

47

The problem with Consent

PWC Business Solutions fined €150,000

i. has unlawfully processed the personal data of its employees contrary to the provisions of Article 5(1)(a) indent (a) of the GDPR since it used an inappropriate legal basis.

ii. has processed the personal data of its employees in an unfair and non-transparent manner contrary to the provisions of Article 5(1)(a) indent (b) and (c) of the GDPR giving them the false impression that it was processing their data under the legal basis of consent pursuant to Article 6(1)(a) of the GDPR, while in reality it was processing their data under a different legal basis about which the employees had never been informed.

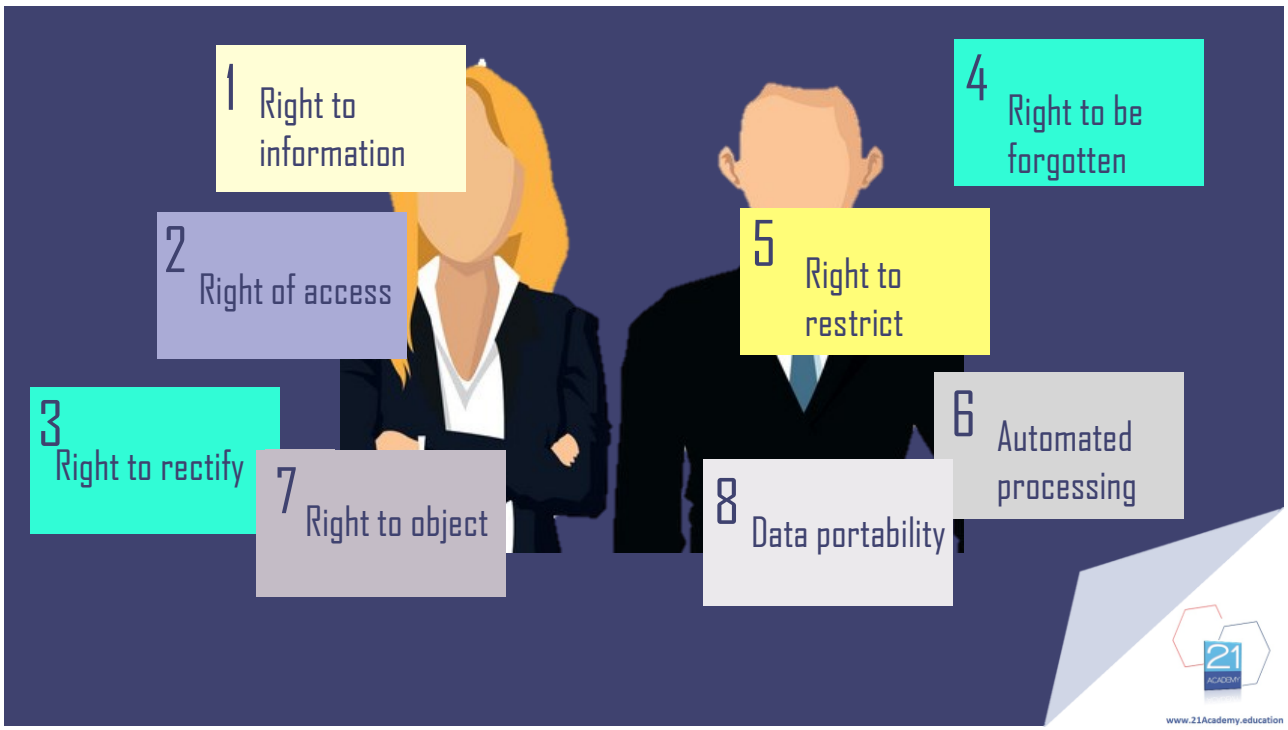
iii. although it was responsible in its capacity as the controller, it was not able to demonstrate compliance with Article 5(1) of the GDPR, and that it violated the principle of accountability set out in Article 5(2) of the GDPR by transferring the burden of proof of compliance to the data subjects.

48

Relying on consent

Name circumstances when we have to rely on consent...

49



50

Breaches of security

Can you name data btreach incidents except fpr hacking?

www.21Academy.education

51

Breaches of security

- loss or theft of hard copy notes, USB drives, computers or mobile devices
- sending an email with personal data (eg. pay slip) to the wrong person
- a bulk email using 'to' or 'cc', but where 'bcc' (blind carbon-copy) should have been used
- a disgruntled employee copying a list of contacts for their personal use
- a break-in at the office where personnel files are kept in unlocked storage

www.21Academy.education

52

Breaches of security

Data subject to be informed without undue delay

IDPC to be notified within 72 hours of breach

Clear internal process should be issued so that everyone knows in which situation a breach needs to be notified and who has responsibility to make those decisions.
